Billy Ray Spencer

Billy Ray Spencer, 82, of St. Stephen, SC, a retired superintendent of manufacturing at Albany International and co-owner of Harry's Fish Camp, died Saturday afternoon at his residence.

His funeral was March 14, 2017, in the chapel of Dial-Murray Funeral Home, Moncks Corner. Interment was, in Greenwood Memorial Gardens.

Mr. Spencer was born November 4, 1934, in Greenwood, SC, a son of Rans Spencer, Jr., and Hattie Keenan Spencer. He was a graduate of Greenwood High School and received his bachelors degree from Clemson University where he was also a member of the Corps of Cadets. Mr. Spencer was a member of the St. Stephen Christian Church, and he was a Mason and a Shriner. He also formerly served on the St. Stephen Town Council. Mr. Spencer was an avid fisherman, and he enjoyed working in his yard and cutting grass, but he especially enjoyed playing tennis. He was preceded in death by a daughter, Vickie Lynn Cook, and a sister, Jennie Moore. Mr. Spencer was the widower of Jule Ann Wyndham Spencer.

Surviving are, his fiance', Barbara Harris Schipmann of St. Stephen; a grandson, Justin Cook of St. Stephen; a step daughter, Angela Dorman and her husband, David, of Moses Lake, WA; a great granddaughter, Karleigh Cook; and two step grandchildren, Sarah and James Dorman.