

Tony Max Mishoe

Mr. Tony Max Mishoe, age 80, passed away Saturday, March 14, 2015 at Loris Extended Care Facility following an illness. Mr. Mishoe was born November 25, 1934 in Loris, SC, a son of Mr. Wiley Levi Mishoe and Mrs. Grace Stevens Mishoe. Mr. Mishoe served his country in the United States Air Force, he later retired as a salesman with the Elanco Division of Eli Lilly and Company and was a member of Loris First Baptist Church.

Survivors include his wife: Linda Boyd Mishoe of the home; two sons: Steve Mishoe and wife, Marshanne and Max Mishoe, Jr. all of Atlanta, GA; one daughter, Tracy Jane Hughes and husband, Joe of Seattle, WA; two brothers, Osteen Mishoe of Monks Corner, SC and John Mishoe of Loris, SC; one sister, Marjorie Schmolke of Clear Lake, Iowa and seven loving grandchildren.

In addition to his parents Mr. Mishoe was predeceased by two brothers: Rev. Thomas M. Mishoe and Paul Mishoe and one sister, Kathleen Hardee.

Memorial services were at 3:00 PM on Friday, March 20, 2015 at Hardwick Memorial Chapel with Dr. Louis Venable and Dr. Jim Mezick officiating.